

Scenario: A volunteer views nearby requests, looks through the list of current requests, then chooses a request and accepts it. The volunteer is then assigned to the request and its status is updated to accepted. Finally, the user is notified.