

Scenario: A victim submits a relief request through our Emergency Relief Application. The application determines the priority of the request using RequestService. The request is then added to the ReliefRequestList and its status is updated to RECEIVED. Then it is saved using the DataWriter.